Cost: $178 per person.

Dear Friends,

Come with me to Israel! Join fellow members of the Southeast Council's small congregations as we take an intimate and personal journey through the land of our ancestors. There is no single experience which reveals the spectrum and diversity of Jewish life like visiting Israel. And no vacation to any other destination can offer greater adventure.

On our trip, we will walk through the ancient cities; climb to the rebel fortress Masada; relax in the waters of the Dead Sea; pray at The Kotel; explore Safed, the city of mysticism and art; and marvel at Israel's natural wonders. We will visit centers of Reform Judaism and Reform temples. And so much more!

We encourage you to participate whether you are a first time visitor to Israel or you are a seasoned traveler, whether you are a single person or part of a couple. I promise that this trip will be one that you will never forget. So join me for a journey that will open your mind, touch your heart, and revitalize your spirit!

Prior to departure, the SEC staff and ARZA's Customer Service Center will be available to answer questions and address concerns. (Call ARZA World at 888-811-2812 and select option 1). For updated tour information, visit www.arzaworld.com. Under "Find Your Journey" write "Southeast Congregations" in "find your tour by name". Following this link will lead you to the daily itinerary, the hotels, and direct registration. Alternatively, you may call Joan Peppard Winograd, Assistant Director of the URJ Southeast Council, at 888-289-8242 or e-mail her at jwinograd@urj.org.

I look forward to sharing Israel with you!

L'Shalom,

Rabbi Linda Joseph
Regional Director
Southeast Council
Union for Reform Judaism
