Dear Friends:

Thank you for inquiring about Temple Beth Shira. Enclosed you will find a membership packet for our exciting new synagogue community.

Temple Beth Shira continues to grow and expand at an amazing pace. Our families are becoming more involved in securing our future. We are thrilled with our development and promise.

The Religious/Hebrew school programs and curriculum are creative and innovative. The Director of Education and professional teaching staff are most enthusiastic about everything that Temple Beth Shira School has to offer.

After looking over the enclosed material, please do not hesitate to call me with any questions at 561-912-1453, or on my cell at 561-213-1277.

Again, thank you for your interest in Temple Beth Shira. I look forward to meeting and greeting you very soon.

Cantor Ellen L. Stettner

TEMPLE BETH SHIRA IS:

- A Reform congregation devoted to Torah, Community, Mitzvot and Tikkun Olam (Repairing the World)
- A warm and hamish congregation! Come experience our truly uplifting services and hear a unique blending of traditional and contemporary Jewish melodies.
- Growing EVERY day and ALL are welcome – Young, Old, Families, Singles, Interfaith, Blended Family – There's a place for EVERYONE at Temple Beth Shira!
- Cantor Ellen Stettner, our Spiritual Leader, is an ordained Cantor with over 25 years experience in the clergy. She is a former Cantor of the Stephen Wise Free Synagogue in New York City. Cantor Stettner is a visionary with exciting plans
- Services are held every other Friday evening at West Boca High School on Glades Road, beginning at 7:30 pm.
